

McKeen and Associates Adds Offices in Penobscot Building

Published: August 11, 2015

McKeen and Associates, a Detroit-based medical malpractice law firm, is adding offices in the Penobscot Building.

The additional 3,291 square feet on the 43rd floor will increase McKeen's footprint in the building to more than 14,000 square feet. McKeen occupies the entire 42nd floor and more than 3,000 square feet on the 41st.

McKeen and Associates, which has been in practice since 1998, has been based out of the Penobscot Building for nearly 15 years.
